Review:

I had high hopes based on the reviews, but the experience was kind of a mixed bag. The Veggie Combo looked great but lacked seasoning. The texture just felt off.

The Lean Beef Tibs was better, I'll give them that, but the Lean Chicken Tibs was a little dry for my taste.

Staff were friendly, but the wait was longer than expected and the vibe was kind of chaotic.

I'm usually skeptical about food trucks, but wow - this one blew me away. The Lean Chicken Tikka Masala was ridiculously good, like, I'd drive across town just to get it again.

I also had the Tandoori Mixed Grill, which was super fresh and flavorful. The Combination Curry surprised me the most - not something I'd usually order, but I'm glad I did.

Staff were quick, warm, and seemed to genuinely enjoy what they were doing. 10/10 would recommend if you're anywhere near this truck.

Honestly, not bad - but not great either. The Tonkotsu Ramen came out a little lukewarm. I hate when that happens.

Props for the Spicy Miso Vegetable Ramen though, that was tasty.

I also had the Creamy Chicken Ramen, which was okay, but kind of greasy.

Overall, it felt a bit overpriced for the quality.

This was a total miss for me. The Tandoori Mixed Grill was borderline inedible - dry, bland, and somehow overcooked.

I waited ages only to find out they forgot the Combination Curry. When I finally got it, it was cold.

The Lean Chicken Tikka Masala didn't help either - too salty and just sad looking.

Atmosphere felt rushed, and the staff barely acknowledged the issues. Never again.

The food here felt like a warm hug. That Italian hit all the right notes - spicy, tender, and full of flavor.

The Hot Ham & Cheese was good too, not my favorite, but still solid.

And let's not forget the Pastrami - sweet, crunchy, and just what I needed to wrap up the meal.

The atmosphere was casual and welcoming. Totally worth the stop.

I don't usually leave reviews, but I feel like people need to know. The Tandoori Mixed Grill was a disaster, and not in the fun kind of way. The Combination Curry was missing, and they tried to swap it with something I didn't ask for.

The Lean Chicken Tikka Masala was greasy and overcooked.

For what I paid, I expected something halfway decent - this wasn't it.
