The food here felt like a warm hug. That Creamy Chicken Ramen hit all the right notes - spicy, tender, and full of flavor.

The Spicy Miso Vegetable Ramen was good too, not my favorite, but still solid.

And let's not forget the Tonkotsu Ramen - sweet, crunchy, and just what I needed to wrap up the meal.

The atmosphere was casual and welcoming. Totally worth the stop.

I had high hopes based on the reviews, but the experience was kind of a mixed bag. The Two Meat Plate looked great but lacked seasoning. The texture just felt off.

The Rack of Pork Ribs was better, I'll give them that, but the Fried Pickles was a little dry for my taste.

Staff were friendly, but the wait was longer than expected and the vibe was kind of chaotic.

Honestly, not bad - but not great either. The Italian came out a little lukewarm. I hate when that happens. Props for the Hot Ham & Cheese though, that was tasty.

I also had the Pastrami, which was okay, but kind of greasy.

Overall, it felt a bit overpriced for the quality.

I don't usually leave reviews, but I feel like people need to know. The Spicy Miso Vegetable Ramen was a disaster, and not in the fun kind of way. The Tonkotsu Ramen was missing, and they tried to swap it with something I didn't ask for.

The Creamy Chicken Ramen was greasy and overcooked.

For what I paid, I expected something halfway decent - this wasn't it.

I'm usually skeptical about food trucks, but wow - this one blew me away. The Lean Chicken Tikka Masala was ridiculously good, like, I'd drive across town just to get it again.

I also had the Tandoori Mixed Grill, which was super fresh and flavorful. The Combination Curry surprised me the most - not something I'd usually order, but I'm glad I did.

Staff were quick, warm, and seemed to genuinely enjoy what they were doing. 10/10 would recommend if you're anywhere near this truck.

This was a total miss for me. The Lean Chicken Tikka Masala was borderline inedible - dry, bland, and somehow overcooked.

I waited ages only to find out they forgot the Tandoori Mixed Grill. When I finally got it, it was cold.

The Combination Curry didn't help either - too salty and just sad looking.

Atmosphere felt rushed, and the staff barely acknowledged the issues. Never again.
