Review:

The food here felt like a warm hug. That Combination Curry hit all the right notes - spicy, tender, and full of flavor.

The Tandoori Mixed Grill was good too, not my favorite, but still solid.

And let's not forget the Lean Chicken Tikka Masala - sweet, crunchy, and just what I needed to wrap up the meal.

The atmosphere was casual and welcoming. Totally worth the stop.

I'm usually skeptical about food trucks, but wow - this one blew me away. The The King Combo was ridiculously good, like, I'd drive across town just to get it again.

I also had the Gyro Plate, which was super fresh and flavorful. The Greek Salad surprised me the most - not something I'd usually order, but I'm glad I did.

Staff were quick, warm, and seemed to genuinely enjoy what they were doing. 10/10 would recommend if you're anywhere near this truck.

I don't usually leave reviews, but I feel like people need to know. The Three Meat Plate was a disaster, and not in the fun kind of way. The Rack of Pork Ribs was missing, and they tried to swap it with something I didn't ask for.

The Fried Pickles was greasy and overcooked.

For what I paid, I expected something halfway decent - this wasn't it.

I had high hopes based on the reviews, but the experience was kind of a mixed bag. The Breakfast Crepe looked great but lacked seasoning. The texture just felt off.

The Crepe Suzette was better, I'll give them that, but the Chicken Pot Pie Crepe was a little dry for my taste.

Staff were friendly, but the wait was longer than expected and the vibe was kind of chaotic.

Honestly, not bad - but not great either. The Greek Salad came out a little lukewarm. I hate when that happens. Props for the The King Combo though, that was tasty.

I also had the Gyro Plate, which was okay, but kind of greasy.

Overall, it felt a bit overpriced for the quality.

This was a total miss for me. The Greek Salad was borderline inedible - dry, bland, and somehow overcooked.

I waited ages only to find out they forgot the The King Combo. When I finally got it, it was cold.

The Gyro Plate didn't help either - too salty and just sad looking.

Atmosphere felt rushed, and the staff barely acknowledged the issues. Never again.
